

Crossfire

Primal Fear

The devil was knocking at my door
But I wasn't ready to go
Will it ever be the same again
It didn't change me, it was just cold

Caught up in the crossfire
Takes me higher
I'm breaking the spell
Caught up in the crossfire
An angel's choir
I've learned all about hell

Caught in a crossfire

Beaten till I hit the ground
I've watched the sun, standing in the rain
Maybe it's just the test of time
The torture, pain and all those lies

Caught up in the crossfire
Takes me higher
I'm breaking the spell
Caught up in the crossfire
An angel's choir
I've learned all about hell

Caught in a crossfire

It's a game, you win or lose
Don't hide your face, it is the truth

Caught up in the crossfire
Takes me higher
I'm breaking the spell
Caught up in the crossfire
An angel's choir
I've learned all about hell

Caught in a crossfire
Caught up
Caught up
Caught up
Caught up
Caught up
Caught up
Caught up
Caught up
Caught up
Caught up
