

Horrorscope

Primal Fear

She died in a Jaws of Death
I saw her lying there in a pool of blood
I saw the murder's face as he left the trace
Hell comes down - his lawyers face was sublime

The justice in trouble
No evidence accepted for real
She died full of fears
I found out what's mean

You better listen
To the Horrorscope
The execution
Death hits back and droops
It's your Horrorscope

She died in a Jaws of Death
I marked his trace burned his bridges behind
He will make mistakes and for heaven's sake
There will be revenge, but I couldn't save her life

I walk through thunder
A rage against time
Don't turn around - there's a reason why

You better listen
To the Horrorscope
The execution
Death hits back and droops
It's your Horrorscope
