

Raise Your Fists

Primal Fear

You never seem to get along
And all you need is power
What goes around comes around
You never play it fair
You just attract my attention
Then put me to my knees
Your world is full of all those alibis
You're nothing but hot air

Oh I will keep safe distance
And I will tell myself

Raise your fists
Break these chains
Raise your fists
Out in the streets of downfall

You've got no one to satisfy
All your needs and cravings
You're hard to please and that is why
I don't really care
You just play the game of innocence
The shoes on the other foot
And now you're begging me to come back
I don't accept the dare

Why do you look for bad things
I keep telling myself

Raise your fists
Break these chains
Raise your fists
Out in the streets of downfall

Raise your fists
Break these chains
Raise your fists
Out in the streets
Raise your fists
Break these chains
Raise your fists
Out in the streets of downfall

Raise your fists
Out in the streets
Raise your fists
