

I Love to Hurt (You Love to Be Hurt)

Primal Scream

Ain't never worse than what there I say
I'm leaving force have trying the fair
Why to do we have it all that so much
Chasing the glory, the glory of love

I love to hurt, you love to be hurt, ain't no glory, the glory
of love
I love to hurt, you love to be hurt, ain't no glory, the glory
of love

The father of lovers, the followers of sense
Followers of diction, a-come full of death
There's no cover, this fucking disease
Chase like a joking, you're safe in the fear

I love to hurt, you love to be hurt, ain't no glory, the glory
of love
I love to hurt, you love to be hurt, ain't no glory, the glory
of love

We must be damaged to fatigue with pain
Rumors and causes - one in the same
I want ? that never wake up
There is no glory, no glory of love

I love to hurt, you love to be hurt, ain't no glory, the glory
of love
I love to hurt, you love to be hurt, ain't no glory, the glory
of love

Last ? speeding I just to don't care
Want to be dead so upright glass
Desperate to talk I don't understand Take you with me

I love to hurt, you love to be hurt, ain't no glory, the glory
of love
I love to hurt, you love to be hurt, ain't no glory, the glory
of love

Ain't never worse than what there I say
I'm leaving force have trying the fair
Why to do we have it all that so much
Chasing the glory, the glory of love
Why to do we have it all that so much
Chasing the glory, the glory of love
Chasing the glory, the glory of love
