

Doors

Prime Circle

So long I hope you find yourself out there,
I hope you find the world you've wanted,
To find out what it means to be,
Told I'll be free and unfold.

Can't always do just what your told,
You'll never know untill youve started,
So reach out and let it in
Oh everything now.

I'm doing my best somehow,
I'm trying but don't know how,
But nothing can stop me,
I've seen this a million times before,
Fallen and finished but still want more,
Don't you know if you open two open doors,
Don't stop believing I know what you're feeling.

Come in and feel the warmth against your skin,
Feel the world ripple over,
Well somethings been forsaken,
Control all the world that were in.

I'm doing my best somehow,
I'm trying but don't know how,
But nothing can stop me,
I've seen this a million times before,
Fallen and finished but still want more,
Don't you know if you open two open doors,
Don't stop believing I know what you feeling.
