

Given the Truth

Prime Circle

Well I know I'm hard at times I swear
I'm laughing out of fear
i swear I'll try my best not to run

Oh well I know oh well I see
You'll be the next one out of here
I said that I would draw the line
Oh well oh well

Given the truth would you just fly out
Given the chance would you just fall
Given the end would you just die out
Given the choice would you stay calm

So let's turn these tables round
And spin them so much faster
Move against these times could this
Be the one

Oh well I know oh well I see
You'll be the next one out of here
I said that I would draw the line
Oh well oh well

Given the truth would you just fly out
Given the chance would you just fall
Given the end would you just die out
Given the choice would you stay calm

This is something else I don't know where it's going to
You say something else I don't know
If I'm getting through
