

Jekyll & Hyde

Prime Circle

Seems these days I'm terrified
By the darker side of me
Can hear myself so glad I close my eyes
Can feel it breaking free
This is my Jekyll and Hyde condition
A different person inside to see
Keeps on coming without permission
Why can't it let me be?

It's getting stronger
Chasing me
I hear it screaming out
I'm behind you
Don't try to run away now
I will find you
I'll find you

Before I was fine
Didn't bother me
Did things in my own way
But now it's here and I'm changing fast
Stronger every day
This is my Jekyll and Hyde condition
A different person inside to see
[I'm breaking free]
Keeps on coming without permission
Why can't it let me be?

It's getting stronger
Chasing me now
I hear it screaming out
I'm behind you
Don't try to run away now
I will find you
I will find you

Seems these days I'm terrified
By the darker side of me

I hear it screaming out
I'm behind you
Don't try to run away now
I will find you
I will find you
I will find you
I will find you
I will find you
