

Time Kills Us All

Prime Circle

The clock turns around And we're all left here defenseless At 1 east we've got tonight

The world seems to spin To it's own point and condition I'd giv e it all up for you To set you free now

I want you All of you Time kills us all but I'll keep waiting f or you

Everywhere everyone I've known Up till now I've always felt alo ne Can't compete with the time

Through the ups and downs Would you still be there for me

Lets just go you know I will Cause right now oh time stands sti ll

I want you All of you Time kills us all but I'll keep waiting for you

I want you All of you Time kills us all but I'll keep waiting f
or you

Who do we have to fight? What is it all for now? There's no one here to blame What is it all for now?

I want you All of you I want you All of you

Cause I want you All of you Time kills us all but I'll keep wai ting I want you All of you Time kills us all but I'll keep wait ing For you Waiting for you
