Primer 55

I can't breathe

Well I'm too tired to fall asleep
So I'll just lie here and watch you breathe
Push the hair back from your eyes
Gently push your lips to mine
For sure with lots of care
I'd do anything to keep you here
One wrong step and you'll be gone
Like everything, I ever loved

Release

Hey without you why can't I breathe?

Now that I know what you need
Innocence is to naive
Try so hard to get the nerve
But never get what I deserve
Sanctuary in your arms
Cause I feel no one can do you harm
Feel your heart beat next to mine
Make a pass, you're far behind
