

Five Months Later

Prince Fox

You were all that I wanted
Til you weren't anymore
I just wish your stuff wasn't here
Your hairties on my floor
Left your bronzer in my bathroom
And my sheets smell of Tom Ford
I just wish your stuff wasn't here
Your Converse by my door

I've been crossing all my exes
I've been sleeping all alone
Walking all the same streets
Just to see if you're home
Five months later
Randoms just won't do

I've been crossing all my exes
I've been sleeping all alone
Walking all the same streets
Just to see if you're home
Five months later
Randoms just won't do

Got a message, unknown number
Happy birthday, what's that for?
I just wish that you'd disappear
And not haunt me to my core
Hate your smile cuz I miss it
Rosie cheeks, blush some more
I just wish that you'd disappear
Like I watched you slam my door

I've been crossing all my exes
I've been sleeping all alone
Walking all the same streets
Just to see if you're home
Five months later
Randoms just won't do

I've been crossing all my exes
I've been sleeping all alone
Walking all the same streets
Just to see if you're home
Five months later
Randoms just won't do

I've been crossing all my exes
I've been sleeping all alone
Walking all the same streets
Just to see if you're home
Five months later
Randoms just won't do

I've been crossing all my exes
I've been sleeping all alone
Walking all the same streets
Just to see if you're home

Five months later
Randoms just won't do
