

Time Alone

Prince Fox

I got a confession
I've been keepin you guessin
Cause I'm not sure on my own
And I don't know myself
I don't know how else
To be besides alone

So don't let me be your hope
You deserve more than all I own
And I'm missing out
Cause its not about
Any string of words from your mouth
I just need some time alone
Time alone

I just need some time alone

I got a confession
It was not my intention
To be leading you on or treat you cold
And it's not your fault
Cause we had it all
And my games are gettin old

So don't let me be your hope
You deserve more than all I own
And I'm missing out
But its not about
Any string of words from your mouth
I just need some time alone
Time alone

I just need some time alone
I just need some time alone

So don't let me be your hope
You deserve more than all I own
And I'm missing out
But its not about
Any string of words from your mouth
I just need some time alone
Time alone

So don't let me be your hope
You deserve more than all I own
And I'm missing out
But its not about
Any string of words from your mouth
I just need some time alone
Time alone
