

With You

Prince Royce

Just a little reminder
I'm not a good liar
You sat on my pillow
Just taking my pride away
I talked to my mama
She told me find my hideaway
I ain't slept in days
Cause you're my hideaway

I always heard that one is the lonely one
I wake up thinking 'bout you
Can't go to sleep
Can't without you

If I could fall, fall asleep
With you, with you
If I could fall, fall asleep
With you, with you

Running around, I dropped my heart on my pocket
Should've been headed straight to you
Making my rounds, I think I lost what I got here
Now I can't think of nothing but you

I know they say that wouldn't get so lonely
But do me a favor
End this pain, I ain't slept in days now
Come back home, [?] with me

If I could fall, fall asleep
With you, with you
If I could fall, fall asleep
With you, with you

Loving the [?] feels like your body
All of these curves to find you
Girl, you belong to me
We could be naughty
All of my words will be true
I'm down to turn up at your party
I'm down to be here 'til the morning
Loving the [?] feels like your body
All of my words'll find you

If I could fall, fall asleep
With you, with you
If I could fall, fall asleep
With you, with you

With you, with you
If I could fall
If I could fall
