

The Loneliest Girl

Princess Chelsea

Stuck in the middle, stuck in the middle
Stuck in the middle, between right and wrong
Is it better to love him and lose her
Than to not love at all
Stuck in the middle, stuck in the middle
Stuck in the middle, the loneliest girl
Is it better to love her and lose him
She's the loneliest girl

And in the morning, when she wakes up
He is the first one she thinks about
Is it better to lose her and love him
Is it worth it at all

She is the martyr, she is the martyr
She is the martyr on the dance floor
When they're dancing so close at the disco
She's the loneliest girl

Spinning round in a triangle, who will have a broken heart?
Spinning round in a triangle, who will have a broken heart?
Spinning round in a triangle, who will have a broken heart?
Spinning round in a triangle, who will have a broken heart?
Spinning round in a triangle, who will have a broken heart?

Stuck in the middle, the middle, between right and wrong
Stuck in the middle, the middle, between right and wrong
Stuck in the middle, the middle, between right and wrong
Stuck in the middle, the middle, she's the loneliest girl

She's the loneliest girl
She's the loneliest girl
She's the loneliest girl
She's the loneliest girl in the world
She's the loneliest girl
She's the loneliest girl in the world

Stuck in the middle, stuck in the middle
Stuck in the middle, the loneliest girl
Stuck in the middle, stuck in the middle
Stuck in the middle, between right and wrong
Stuck in the middle, stuck in the middle
Stuck in the middle, the loneliest girl
Stuck in the middle, stuck in the middle
