Princess Nokia

Welcome, welcome, welcome, welcome
You've got mail

I'm the fantasy
Your reality
Click, click, click
Doin' what I please
Hit me on my sidekick
Never been a side chick
Always been a wifey
Never been a side bitch
Oh, it's a Princess ting
The age of 14 I was wearin' rings
Makin' Xanga things
With my dope PC
Memorizing codes was so amazing
HTML in my sleep
Binary codes, breakfast I eat
Poor and sexy girls are the dreams that I dream
And this is the life of 2014
Invisible cage of the MySpace age
Hooked on for hours
Plays for plays
Digital rage is my digital sage
Digital junk go page for page

Confessions of a cyber girl
The kingpin of the Matrix world
It's a war and I'm winnin'
Let me live the life I did in the beginning

Let me live the life I did in the beginning
Let me live the life I did in the beginning
Let me live the life I did in the beginning
Let me live the life I did in the beginning
Goodbye

A-a little bitch
Hella fuckin' weirdo
Aquaoid in the club and always up in your earlobe
Read my books, and I don't do drugs
Like a mother's love I'm silly in the sun
Thinking too much
And I live in the Matrix
Understand the truth and I see different phases
Dimensions that ain't even mentioned
I could ride a space any time, no question
If I try hard I can move it with my mind
Then I meditate until I levitate[?]
Get my living state into a higher place

Stay the fuck up and I think it's true
I'm still a little butt
So you don't tell me what to do
Boo, this is just my life
And what you ain't through I been through it twice
I'm still doin' nice
I do the damn statistic

Livin' on my own
It's a gamble, I'ma risk it
Livin' on my own
It's a gamble, I'ma risk it
Livin' on my own
It's a gamble, I'ma risk it
