Love me slow, don't let go. Come on, let's climb the highest mountain, make wishes in the water fountain. Oh woah oh, here we go. Walking down the magic river, the water makes your body shiver.

Make me weep, love me deep. And I will throw you in the fire, show you all my mind's desire.

Oh woah oh, here we go. Running through the darkest forest, listening to the sirens calling.
Love me slow, don't let go.
