

I'll Be Here

Priscilla Ahn

If you fall, if you fly
It's so hard when your trying to get back your heart
Never lasts, it's broken but it's wise
And one day, you will rise
And you'll learn to dry those eyes
Cause you'll see what it's like
To struggle in this life
(To struggle in this life)

I'll be here for you
(To struggle in this life)
Any day you want me to
I'll be here for you

It's okay, it's alright
If you cry, cause I'll be here by your side
I know what it's like
To struggle in this life
(To struggle in this life)
(To struggle in this life)
To struggle in this life

I'll be here for you
(To struggle in this life)
Any day you want me to
(I will be here for you)
Love will see us through
Wherever you are, whatever you do
I'll be here
