

I See You

Priscilla Ahn

Living alone in a world of your own
Looking in from the outside
No one's aware of your curious stare
That you put on to get by

But I see you yes I see you
And it's alright

When you are free you run wild to the sea
Only you hear the birds cry
Nobody knows why your heart ebbs and flows
You're just trying to get by

But I see you yes I see you
And it's alright

If you need some time it's alright
If you wanna cry it's alright
If you want to be loved

Run far and wide to a place you can hide
Where you're safe on the inside
Look at the stars see that's just what you are
Show the world how your light shines

Cause I see you yes I see you

And it's alright if you need some time
It's alright if you wanna cry
It's alright if you want to be loved

It's alright if you need some time
It's alright if you wanna cry
It's alright if you want to be loved

Cause I see you yes I see you
