

Pretty Dress

Priscilla Ahn

Pretty dress what a mess
I made the day you left
When you asked me to forgive you
I ran away to be on my own
And cry all alone

You showed me love
You showed me love

No one knew what I went through
You saw that my heart was true
So I dry my tears face my fears
I smile because I know you were there
And how you cared

You showed me love
You showed me love

And I know when I'm lonely
It's okay for me to be

You showed me love
(I've never felt like this before
You picked me up from off the floor)
You showed me love
(You taught me how to love again)
You showed me love
You taught me how to love again)

You showed me love
