With You

Priscilla Ahn

Meet me on the shore
I will give you more of my heart
I swear I'll give you every part of me

Tell me where you go When you feel alone I'll be there Anytime anywhere you need me eum

Winds will howl and tides will rise Some days I'll smile some days I'll cry But with you it'll be alright eum

When you go back home or places still unknown Think of me
I will find you in a dream
Sweet dream eum

I will be your friend til the very end Hold on tight I'll never lose you In the darkest night uh

Winds will howl and tides will rise Some days I'll smile some days I'll cry But with you it'll be alright
