

Sad Girls Do Sad Things

Priscilla Block

Don't get me wrong I love a beer on a Friday
But lately I've been at the bar more than my place
Another round of shuttin' it down
Two for ones to too far gone
Don't get me wrong I love to smoke a drunk one
But lately I've been keepin' Camels in the console
I light one up just because I'm chasin' any kinda buzz

When you hurt this bad you'll do anything to get back to that high you had
Even then you know it's over and what's past is past
Am I low or am I lonely?
All I know is this ain't who I wanna be
I guess sad girls do sad things

Don't get me wrong I love to dance with strangers
But it ain't like me to wake up and not remember
Who I'm with, how I got here, who's that girl in the mirror

When you hurt this bad you'll do anything to get back to that high you had
Even then you know it's over and what's past is past
Am I low or am I lonely?
All I know is this ain't who I wanna be
I guess sad girls do sad things
Sad things

What I'd do to get me back 'cause where I'm at's so damn sad

When you hurt this bad you'll do anything to get back to that high you had
Even then you know it's over and what's past is past
Am I low or am I lonely?
All I know is this ain't who I wanna be
I guess sad girls do sad things
Sad things

Don't get me wrong I love a beer on a Friday
But lately I've been at the bar more than my place
