You're all up in my zone

I'm a black black widow
Black widow widow
Ah ahah black widow
Widow ahah

Black widow
I'm a black widow
(Ha woo)

I got you wrapped
On my finger
A different side of me
Lingers in your head
Who can stop me? I don't stop
A me that is not me has been born
Red eyes come out
And swallow me up

It grows blurry then clear
Far away as if it'll disappear
Dangerous, a black touch
Wraps around me

Fly far far away
Farther farther into a different world
The heavy line of reason breaks
Now I feel light
Fly hi hi hi high
High yeah
I'm flying high

So get your hands up
Up up
So get your hands up
Up up

Wake up, look into my eyes

You can't escape
You're all up in my zone
I'm a black black widow
Black widow widow
Ah ahah black widow
Widow ah ahah

Wrapped on my finger
Since the beginning
You were in my hands
You can't stop me, I don't stop
Just trust yourself with me
Don't worry
We gon rock tonight
I'll swallow you up

Fly far far away
Farther farther into a different world
The heavy line of reason breaks
Now I feel light
Fly hi hi hi high
High yeah
I'm flying high

So get your hands up
Up up
So get your hands up
Up up

Wake up, look into my eyes
You can't escape
You're all up in my zone

I'm a black black widow
Black widow widow
Ah ahah black widow
Widow ah ahah

The me of the past is gone
The soft me fades away
And away and away
A black touch wraps around me

Fly far far away
Farther farther into a different world
The heavy line of reason breaks
Now I feel light
Fly hi hi hi high
High yeah
I'm flying high

So get your hands up

Get your (ooh) hands up
So get your hands up
Get your (ooh) hands up
Open your eyes
See how much I changed

Come get your hands up
Come get your hands up
So get your hands up
Come get your hands up

Come get your hands up
And get your hands up

Wake up, look into my eyes
You can't escape
You're all up in my zone

I'm a black black widow
Black widow widow
Ah ahah black widow
Widow ahah
