Tell me, you

Alone with you, honestly no I
Don't do it, don't do it, don't ignore it
Tell me, you

All day, I thought about you
Then I tried to erase you
You knock on me without permission
Why do you keep playing games?
You push me again, go away

You're like a word bubble
Always floating above my head, I try to make it go away
But it gets bigger the more I think about you
My feelings for you
I need your kiss boy now
I'm fast asleep, where are you?
You're the prince in my fairy tale
Come to me and save me

Come to me in my dreams, hug me
Even if I wake up, I don't wanna let go of your hand
Don't go, why do you keep going far away
Running & running & running
Running & running & running

If you keep smiling like that, you'll be in danger
Any other girls besides me, don't treat them well
Because of you, my heart keeps
Running & running & running
Running & running & running

This time
I'll knock on your heart first
Do you know what I mean
What I mean is wanna be with you
Wanna say I love you
Wanna be with you

Mm easier said than done
911 wheres my pixie
This love I stupidly wait for you
Then I fall asleep again
Tomorrow, I hope I'll have courage
I hope I'll be standing next to you
I'm searching and watching you
Say that you want me too ow!

Come to me in my dreams, hug me
Even if I wake up, I don't wanna let go of your hand
Don't go, why do you keep going far away
Running & running & running
Running & running & running

If you keep smiling like that, you'll be in danger
Any other girls besides me, don't treat them well
Because of you, my heart keeps
Running & running & running
Don't do it

It's like a dream, I'm reflected in your eyes
Just come to me like that
Just be my bae
Then we go like mwah

Come to me in my dreams, hug me
Even if I wake up, I won't let go of this hand
Baby I'm with you, now it's us two
Loving & loving & loving
Loving & loving & loving

Always smile like that for me
Actually, no matter how much I see you, my heart flutters
Baby I love you, us two
Loving & loving & loving don't go

Alone with you, honestly no I
Don't do it, don't do it, don't ignore it
Stay, you
