

Problem Pageant

Priyanka

I'm packing my mind, like a suitcase
Wit issues, and bullshit and bad days
Sittin' all pretty and cute
Yeah I got problems, and I can't solve em

I'm beauty, I'm grace, I'm excited
Feelin' sexy then shit in a minute
I got pain, make it rain
Alright, here's a little advice

When your troubles feel larger than life
Just remember
It ain't just you

Issa problem pageant
So get in line get in line if you say you've had it
No sympathy
Or symphony of violins for you
Cuz we're all at the problem pageant
Walk it off walk it off
Issa human habit
My misery
Loves all your company
So join the crew
Let's pose for the problem pageant

It's always hot on the island of loneliness
Trauma dumping on each other feels like happiness
So you better ride the wave
There's a stone to break
Like a tsunami wave, you know
You can dip when the storm tryna get you down
Catch a little sunshine on the other side of town
Gwan' skin out yuh self
While yah tellin' yourself
Personality, cunt, bitch, slut

When your troubles feel larger than life
Just remember
It ain't just you (lift, smile and flirt)

Let's pose for the problem pageant

Walk it off, walk it off like this
You know I love you, cause I'd never let you quit
I got your back girl, up against the whole world
Show em what it is

Walk it off, walk it off like this
You know I love you, cause I'd never let you quit
I got your back girl, up against the whole world
