Give me your hand and let's get going, the light of love is sho wing

And now the earth is glowing, like my heart and yours Give me your hand and let's get going, the light of love is sho wing

And now the earth is glowing, like my heart and yours

Can't peer pressure a nigga that ain't afraid to die
My biggest fear is the day that I'm afraid to try
God's angel, I was made to fly
Nigga, yeah, my evolution's being televised
TV shows, movies and clothes can follow the leader
Money didn't make me better, it only empowered my freedom
Nigga is dying to live, putting their soul on the line
Or Putting their hustle on pause like they ain't control of the ir time

Get to it, yeah, crip blood, piru it

No nigga or no bitch controls how I'm moving

Kung-Fu'in through the rumors, come kick it with me

UCLA, like Bruins, if ever shit gets tricky

Yeah, the wine's working, I can feel a nigga vibe changing

The rhyme's working, I can feel you niggas mind changing

Think big, dream better than the average

Wake up to try to live better than that shit

Fact shit, miss me with that cap shit

I say it then I mean it, nigga, this is not no rap shit

Living and I'm breathing, nigga, this is not for captions

Huh, it's actions over captions

Why?
