Problem

Get back, we on a whole 'nother frequency
Now watch out, we on a whole different frequency
Get back, we on a whole different frequency
Two step, we on a whole different frequency
Get back, now watch out
Uuh uh, Chill out
Get back, watch out
Uuh uh, Chill out

Hey baby, what's shaking with that
I'm checking out your behind and it's taking me back
I hear you looking for the truth now you're facing the facts
Yeah, I do run a certain place on the map
Have us a drink and relax, what kind of music you like
What's your day-to-day plans of improving your life
Write with your left hand, what you moving to right
Do you believe everything that you google in life
Do you have your price?
What time you wake up in the morning?
I see you like to stay fly like a passenger boarding
Yeah, I'm a problem, but please put an asterisk on it
Cause shit get deep with me
Compton king with them billion dollar frequencies
I swear you've never seen it like it, far from gay
But I swear boo, I can lick it like it
I'mma say, let me in girl, I'mma freak inside it
I know I'm moving fast girl, but this is me excited
I can see me vibing, yeah

Get back, we on a whole 'nother frequency
Now watch out, we on a whole different frequency
Get back, we on a whole different frequency
Two step, we on a whole different frequency

I see you try to second-guess it
Better chill before you miss your blessings
God sent you in this direction
You wanna pop it, I can get to flexing
How I can run around my city with no protection
And that's saying something
Yeah, that body bustin' like a walk-down
Urgent as that yellow tape with that chalk round
Yeah, today I chose violence
Body pussy comin' like a siren
Whaat, get your ass over here In them thigh high boots
Set that little thang up and let my tongue run loose
Tongue lips no cheeks, like I got no tooth
On P's, bet you yell out woop, yeah that on on me

Now watch out, we on a whole different frequency

Get back, we on a whole 'nother frequency
Now watch out, we on a whole different frequency
Get back, we on a whole different frequency
Two step, we on a whole different frequency

Get back, now watch out
Uuh uh, Chill out
