Problem

Because, because, because

Gas rules everything around me
Catch me in a room where everything's cloudy
None'll prove I'm wrong if they doubt me
Gas rules everything around me
Catch me in a room where everything's cloudy
None'll prove I'm wrong if they doubt me

Uh-huh, like the spliff up
Everything cold, froze the wrist up
Roof's critched, just ordered for pickup
Ain't moving forward cause them niggas stuck
Spent a couple bucks on some new rims and stuff
The niggas with the vision balance out the competition
I ain't witnessing, that's why I practice every day
Train to go the distance, it ain't about my team
I ain't got no interest, walk in the room with them haters
I feel no tension, feel like the best in my division
Don't depend on luck, we made the conscious decision
My skills get better with this repetition
Hit the mark every time, that's what you call precision
You ain't gon' make everyone happy, just play your position
You ain't gon' get rich in one day, just keep paying attention
I stay focused on the mission like a nigga throwing bait
When he fishing, I'm gon' get what's coming

Gas rules everything around me
Catch me in a room where everything's cloudy
None'll prove I'm wrong if they doubt me
Gas rules everything around me
Catch me in a room where everything's cloudy
None'll prove I'm wrong if they doubt me

Tryna recultivate the culture while ducking the vultures
Navigating through the hatred and suckers' emotions
This shit is dangerous when you famous, so watch what you're posting
Just keep it low, you never know who out watching the closest
Business, never personal, less of dealing with personnel
Stay away from loudmouths, them boys be the first to tell
Even though I'm sky high, still stick to the guidelines
Head in the game, don't pay attention to sidelines
They gon' yell, no matter you doing good or bad
You put me anywhere on earth, but I'ma get it back
Forever winning, cause I understand my purpose, bro
I kept it solid with my niggas, so it's working month
Like one for the gym

Gas rules everything around me
Catch me in a room where everything's cloudy
None'll prove I'm wrong if they doubt me
Gas rules everything around me
Catch me in a room where everything's cloudy
