

Gangsters Get Scared

Problem

Yeah, yeah, yeah, why?
Even gangsters get scared

Why?
(Even gangsters get scared, sometimes)

Lord, forgive me for my sins
(Even gangsters get scared)

My palms sweaty, guess it's time for the murder
My shooter just got caught slipping without a burner (Uh- oh)
Thirteen, first kill I threw up on the curb
Early 7th grade, I heard they put him on a shirt
It's getting kinda late, momma coming home from work
You ever been so nervous you took your Glock to church?
I heard she wanna set me up, I was unaware
Shit, I don't even know who the fuck I am in the mirror
All these diamonds 'round my neck, teeth like a chandelier (Bling, bling)
Falling asleep, I see death coming near (Uh)
Man, that Glock by my ear, everybody acting weird
I'ma air it out in my apartment, no sleeping there (Blocka, blocka, blocka, blocka)

Gangsters get scared, sometimes
On momma real, yeah
Even gangsters get scared, sometimes

Ayy, you ever seen the other side of the barrel?
Knee deep to where you feel like even God couldn't help you
You know that gangsters smell fear, stand on 10
Shit, that's all I can tell you
It ain't no love, where I'm from, you slip up, they'll nail you
Waking up from cold sweats, tryna catch my own breath
When you with that gunplay, they label you a known threat
I got a hundred problems in my head, I'm tryna solve 'em
We was spending blocks pressing play, tryna pause 'em
Granny told me, 'Go the other way,' but I ain't listen
I've been paranoid from all the shit that I done witnessed
Ain't see this shit at first, but now it's millions in my vision
Screaming, 'Free the gangsters out there fighting for they fitness'
