

Angel

Prodigy

Yeah, yeah, now hear me out

I'm hearin' what you sayin'
And I'm never gonna change, boy
'Cause you got me for life, don't you worry
I'm all in, baby, you can just say yes

It's like I need a better angel, God bless you
Where's that you came from? I know God sent you (You're my angel)
Good God, I don't wanna stress you
Make my eyes feel good, make my soul feel special
I'll press triggers if they try to press you
Things I do to impress you
I go to war for you, I go long for you
Who else you know that spent so much time on you? (You could just say yes)
'Cause a nigga not worthy, bruh (You could just say yes)
How he give up so easy? I worship her
I try to stop lovin' you, but the shit don't work
There's no woman on the planet that can make me skrrt-skrrt on you
I never meant to cause you pain
I only hurt myself, must be love on the brain
Lemme French kiss it better, baby, fuck your pride
Just bring it on back to life, I need your eye (Baby, you could just say yes)
)
Lookin' deep in my eyes
Now tell me that is real to my face and that you mines
Then I will never leave you, it's no way
Yeah, we're just gettin' started, I'ma need you to stay

I'm hearin' what you sayin' (Now listen good)
And I'm never gonna change, boy (You hear me)
'Cause you got me for life, don't you worry
I'm all in, baby you can just say yes

Stop trippin', don't worry, I got ya (Say less)
I'm all in (Baby, you can just say less)
You ain't gotta say nothin', I got ya (Say less)
I'm all in, boy (You hearin' me)

Yeah, this for you, turn this up
It's just for you, it's like, now check

Angela Winbush, "Angel"
God bless you (Angel), where is it you came from?
I know God sent you
Lord knows I don't wanna stress you
Make my eyes feel good, make a nigga feel special (Ooh, make me feel special
'cause you fine as wine)
'Cause you fine as wine
Know you fine as fuck (Angel)
And the way you think sharp, that's what got me
You probably the smartest person I know
You put me on to so much shit I never knew before
I put you on to some deep shit that had your mind blown
We belong with each other, you should already know
Fuck these other clowns talkin' 'bout
Don't even matter, it's just white noise in the background

They all chatter 'bout the illest two they ever seen
Doin' it like that, we too legit for the bullshit
Listen, I will never leave you, it's no way
We ain't even get started, I'ma need you to stay
Ayo, where you think you goin'? It's no way
We ain't even get started, I'ma need you to stay
