

Yeah

Real shit (Uh-huh)

Yo, look

If you ain't talkin' real shit to me, get the fuck
I taught you 'bout real shit like how to get your bucks
You just wanna spend money and fuck my dick
Smoke a bowl of weed and drink a bowl of liqs
I put you on Illuminati, now you goin' crazy
Believin' everything on 'em YouTube pages
God gave you two eyes, two ears, one mouth
You should pay attention more than runnin' at the mouth
It's a sin not to give information that can help
Save a nigga's soul, girl, I'm good for your health
I know you laugh at me with your friends here and there
Girl, all he do is talk conspiracies, I'm burnt
You lucky that I love you and share what I know
I can't have my wife be some deaf, dumb, and blind ho
Intelligence the new gangster, I don't wanna preach to you
I just wanna love you and maybe help reach
Do you still play the head? Girl, you stubborn than a donkey
I could change your life overnight if you want me
I could change your mind in a blink, in a heartbeat
You can't force change on people, they gotta want it
So I just bite my tongue and shut the fuck up
Roll up another doobie and focus on us
We more important to me than anything
Don't wanna lose your love over petty things
I choose battles wisely and let you win wars
Don't make sense to argue over shit on and on Escapism, that's problem reaction
We fuck all night and take our minds off that shit
We party all night, so high we goin' numb
Shop 'til our hands bleed, buyin' shit we don't need
So we can stunt and front people we don't like
Already know it's more to it, this is not life
But I do anything to please my queen
Whatever makes you happy, baby, know what I mean?
You, you got you a nigga that do both, intellectual thug shit
Where is it you goin'? Nowhere
You couldn't leave me if you used all your strength
God made me your one-off, just give thanks
For years, blessed us, you'll come around soon enough
Watch your paradigm shift, it's no rush
