You Will See

Prodigy

You will see, you will see
You will see, you will see

I'm vicious than a pack of wolves
You not a lion, You just lyin'
I laugh right in front of you
Soft hands and a frozen heart
Callused thoughts it's rough in New York
I piss E&J and shitted on your Rap verse
I spit acid, these niggas the worst
Baby, I done told you, now you see for yourself
They not really monsters, They Scooby-Doo villains
Chill, Uh, Baby want a gangsta, Huh
She had enough with the punk shit, She grew up
She acquired the taste for the thugs up in New York
Attracted to the danger, The rush of the street life
Really we all want love, don't let your pride get it away and screw all up
Baby, your love is my drug
My Lady Heroine, I can't get enough

First time for everything, get your cherry popped
Make a mess of your fresh, yeah, you better stop
Talking all that Jazz, yeah, you very high
I will crash your face with the Henny Rock
Now he pullin' glass out his mouth
And we rollin' up more fire, It never stop
We Clarence and Alabama, The 2017 Mickey and Mallory Knox

And we so high as fuck, this must be Heaven
Right here in Queens New York, sittin' on the steps with a bottle
That's where the magic take place
She touch me, I couldn't take the smile off my face
Till the rollers rolled up, They was starin' all hard
Tryin' to ruin the mood, get the fuck up out the yard
We gettin' real real nice over here
Super shootin' stars, get it poppin' no fear
My serpent in a dress, Legendary fresh (Uh, yes)
Military sex, Diamond in the flesh
She is a weapon, and she is the atomic bomb
My right hand, my firearm remain calm
Look if rap was liquor, I'd be the hard stuff
155 proof, that good Barbados Rum
Yeah, if Rap was a gun, I'd be the. 35 Long
And if life was music, I'd be a dope Rap song

First time for everything, get your cherry popped
Make a mess of your fresh, yeah, you better stop
Talking all that Jazz, yeah, you very high
I will crash your face with the Henny Rock
Now he pullin' glass out his mouth
And we rollin' up more fire, it never stop
We Clarence and Alabama, the 2017 Mickey and Mallory Knox

You will see, you will see
Uh, alright
Say you'll see
