

Borrowed Time

Prof

I've seen you lie
You old-ass, one too many times
What I find, to my surprise
There is no one who's their own
Yeah
Wasting time, you're wasting mine
(I've learned my patience needs to sleep)
I will strangle you with my own hands
(I have tied my own two hands)

Wasting time

You can count me out it
You can write my book and later tell me all about it
I've seen enough to know that we've been over this
You're old as hell, your time is up
Motionless, your ride is stuck
You're scared as hell and for good reason
And I'm burnin' both ends
Cause I don't wanna be your age at a horse race
Breakin' my back over fourth place
Rather middle of a court case
Screamin' at your face til the show ends
They say I drink too much
That's because I think too much
We really wastin' time motherfucker
You'll miss a moment if you blink too much

We got a reason to tie you up
We're living at a moment's notice (Wastin' time)
We got a reason, we can't be bought
Keep thinking that we losin' focus
I've raised myself, I'm ready, (To tie you up)
Keep thinkin' that I'm wastin' my time. (Wasting time)
I've raised myself, I'm ready, (To tie you up)
Keep thinkin' that I'm outta my mind

Should I be polite?
Should I leave you 'lone?
Should I let you come and steal my lifeline?
Don't be so vain
We all got guns
We'll take what's ours
In your lifetime
Patience killing me
I'm getting drunk and breaking everything
I'm so sick
My habits don't lie
I'm killin' myself
Don't wanna break my stride
You can't tell me shit
You're so outta touch
Stay in my way 'n guaranteed I'll fuck you up
The pressure's buildin'
It's gettin' loud
If time is money tell me how to wait around

I've seen you lie
You old-ass, one too many times

We got a reason to tie you up
We're living at a moment's notice (Wastin' time)
We got a reason, we can't be bought
Keep thinking that we losin' focus
I've raised myself, I'm ready (To tie you up)
Keep thinkin' that I'm wastin' my time (Wasting time)
I've raised myself, I'm ready (To tie you up)
Keep thinkin' that I'm outta my mind
