Heaven

Prof

Would you speak to me in Heaven?
Or would you feel some type of way?
Would you forgive me in Heaven, babe?
I've got some things I wanna say

It would destroy me to have you just a little
I'm passionate and brittle, I'm asking for a little of your time
I know I hurt you bad
I know it's hard to look at me without going right back into the past
I just can't admit
We're at a stand still
Do you remember times when we were almost happy?
You could always say things that would make my eyes close
Would you just pick up the phone?

Would you speak to me in Heaven?
Would you still feel some type of way?
Would you forgive me in Heaven, babe?
I've got some things I wanna say

I thought I loved you as much as I could
My love was wrong, I was misunderstood
All along I was so immature
I know I hurt you bad
Ohhhhh, I'm devoted to keeping you
I'm dreaming to make amends
I done runnin' away from my sins
I just can't let this shit end
Don't let me just fall through your hands

Would you speak to me in Heaven?
Would you still feel some type of way?
Would you forgive me in Heaven, babe?
I've got some things I wanna say

I need my life with you

Ohhh, in Heaven baby
Heavens where we make it baby
Where we want it babe

Would you speak to me in Heaven?
Or would you just pass me by?
Would you forgive me in Heaven, babe?
Why can't we just give it a try?
