

Snake Skin Leather

Prof

What you seen to this point is nothing
You don't put a saddle on a mustang
Grab a gun put some acid on a tongue
Hurry up, let's ride

Clear and present danger
That boy's a fucking gangster
I'm unfamiliar with snakes
But it's clear to me I'm on your mind
Give me just a couple more minutes
Ain't gon' stop 'til the job is finished
You got no choice to go to bed
And think of me before you die

I smell a snake, you don't say
Pass the flamethrower, close the gates
It's second nature for a coward to burn a bridge
I smell a rat, a slimy fuck
Pass the flamethrower, sign me up
You know a coward would drown someone else to live
When there is no place to hide
Stab a back and run outside
I've had so much time to think this through

Clear and present danger
That boy's a fucking gangster
I'm unfamiliar with snakes
But it's clear to me I'm on your mind
Give me just a couple more minutes
Ain't gon' stop 'til the job is finished
You got no choice to go to bed
And think of me before you die

I got a hand full of stones in a glass house
I got a million fucking pictures of your ass out
I was taking calls from shooters who was hungry just to do they thing
Look over your shoulder on the Southside
When you look down at your watch it will be my time
I'll make it you can't help it but to see me when you go to sleep
When there is no place to hide
Stab a back and run outside
I'll be here to punish your mistakes
This is mine now

Clear and present danger
That boy's a fucking gangster
I'm unfamiliar with snakes
But it's clear to me I'm on your mind
Give me just a couple more minutes
Ain't gon' stop 'til the job is finished
You got no choice to go to bed
And think of me before you die

This is something you've all seen before
Y'all know what the fuck just happened
You know there's a new king of the whole fucking pride
It's a classic tale

You know who's this is
You know what the fuck this is
You know I'm coming through I'm fucking everything
I'm killing the whole bloodline off
You know what the fuck this is
