

Moments pass in transience
Lids peeled back in fixed
Paralysis, I cannot blink
Forcing me to stare at the display
Forcing me to stare at the display
I just can't seem to look away (look away)
Iris burned in images (images)

Twisted experiment
Thousands of messages

You'll know me by the face of terror
You'll know me by the image of ruin

She rides upon the backs of lifeless horses
Ascending to dominion
Rising from the lake of static voices

Ring the bell and I'll obey
Ring the bell and I will obey

In ultraviolence my mind is linked
To the color and the shape of your display

Twisted experiment
For all the world to gaze

You'll know me by the face of terror
You'll know me by the image of ruin

She rides upon the backs of lifeless horses
Ascending to dominion
Rising from the lake of static voices
Dancing in the feed

Moments pass in transience
Lids peeled back in fixed
Paralysis, I cannot blink
Paralysis, I cannot blink

You'll know me by the face of terror
You'll know me by the image of ruin
