

The Fallbacks Of A Bad Attitude

Promise of Redemption

Close my eyes, I've said it before
This will be the last time
To make a sound
I'm sick of being brought up
Just to be knocked back down
I am done, this is it
I'm going away
With a wind
That's taking me
To a place
It's different from here
It's so different from here
So this is sad
I've been like this before
But you were all I had
But my last chance
I stand back and watch it
Slip right through my hands
Should I apologize
For the mistakes i never made?
So I sit back and I sigh
Is this where I'm supposed to say goodbye? (goodbye, goodbye)

Is this emotional enough for you to turn and walk away?
Are you gonna turn and walk away when you see the pain?
Is this emotional enough for you to turn and walk away?
Are you gonna turn and walk away when you see the pain?
Is this emotional enough for you to turn and walk away?
Are you gonna turn and walk away?
Is this emotional enough for you to turn and walk away?
You gonna turn and walk away?
Is this emotional?
