

Avoid Promises

Prong

You got the reason why I'm falling
Way out of way
I know its easy to be of promise
I'm calling out to pray
I know the reason why I'm calling
Way out to pray
Its never easy to believe a promise
I'm stalling now to say...

All insane
All in vain
All for lack of a reason

I got no reason why I'm crawling
On this certain way
I know its easy to be anonymous
Not crawling to be safe
For some reason I am falling
Falling out of way
I think I'm ceasing to be harnessed
Avoid it any way

All insane
All in vain
All for lack of a reason
