

Breaking Point

Prong

It's got to stop. It's got to end
People have had enough
The flat out lies, all untrue
What is said you cannot trust

They demand that you agree
With ideas you can't believe
Thoughts are banned, can't disagree
And there's no reprieve

What they teach, you won't learn. It's obscene
It's the breaking point
What they teach you won't read. It's obscene
It's the breaking point

The denial
It's the breaking point

It's going to end. It's going to stop
So many people have had enough
It's in decline. No moral view
With no dignity. It's overdue

What they teach, you won't learn. It's obscene
It's the breaking point
What they teach you won't read. It's obscene
It's the breaking point

The denial. It is final
The denial

The flat out lies
All untrue
You cannot trust
I've had enough

What they teach, you won't learn. It's obscene
It's the breaking point
What they teach you won't read. It's obscene
It's the breaking point

It's the breaking point
Breaking point
It's the breaking point

It's the breaking point
