

Compliant

Prong

Because you have to live in silence
And don't even say you want this
And words are only violence
And you're forced to be compliant

Because you have to live in silence
And don't even say you want this
And words are only violence
And you're forced to be compliant

Enemies of the regime
In their war on reality
The ones that disagree
Destroy them entirely

Enemies of the regime

Now what's to even hope for?
When you have to learn to ignore
There's nothing left to answer for
You cannot speak anymore

You're left in such amazement
Of the ridiculous statements
You must simply pay attention
To authoritarian infiltration

Enemies of the regime
In their war on reality
The ones that disagree
Destroy them entirely

Enemies of the regime
Compliant
Infiltration
Indoctrination
Infiltration
Indoctrination

Enemies of the regime
In their war on reality
The ones that disagree
Destroy them entirely

Enemies of the regime
In their war on reality
The ones that disagree
Destroy them entirely
