

Forced into Tolerance

Prong

Inequity so rampant today, unacceptable
Is what we expect
Forced into tolerance of what we disdain
The irrational is how we exist
Someone comes around and make some sense
They are labelled, then disgraced
Caught in the ignorance you try to explain
The ideology we must tolerate

Don't you dare tell me
Again you tell me
I don't care if you insist
Don't you dare tell me
Don't fuckin' tell me
That it is what it is

Forced into tolerance
Forced into tolerance

Stupidity is trampling me, un-reprehensible
And it's a fact
Morphed into prevalence to what is proclaimed
It's the radical illegal success
I am shut down to protect my defense
But I'm disabled, I must abstain
With all indifference you have to refrain
The admirable is something to shame

Don't you dare tell me
Again you tell me
I don't care if you insist
Don't you dare tell me
Don't fuckin' tell me
That it is what it is

Forced into tolerance
Forced into tolerance

Forced into tolerance
Forced into tolerance

Forced into tolerance
Forced into tolerance
