

Zero Days

Prong

No needs
Nothing to lack
No more dilemma
Wipe the slate clean
Of anything to remember
So much to be removed
Nothing to be improved

With no place left to be
Nothing left to see nor hear
Forever gone without a trace
Everything to be erased

Recede
Wave the white flag
No new agendas
Agree to turn it all black
To another era

Nothing more to lose
All will be renewed

Forever gone without a trace
Everything to be erased
Nothing left to be
Nothing left to ever save
No reason left to wait

Zero days
Out of options
The cancellation
Revelations here today
Zero days
Sum of actions
And complications
The subtraction
Judgement day

Out of options
The cancellation
Sum of actions
The subtraction
Judgement day

It's time to turn it back
It's time to reset the clock
Time for the acknowledgement
That it's all for naught
It's time to turn it back
And reach the final stop
Time for the establishment of the global plot
