

Love Letters

Proof

It's Proof man (Ayo, hah)
I did write this on paper I'd like to send to y'all but I said fuck it I might as well capture it right?
(Hip hop, hip hop, hip hop)
I don't really express my love for my homies that much so
When I feel the need to I do, you know how it is!
There ain't another like me, hah

Dear Paul even though you may think small of love songs
This is my apology for everything I done wrong
In the past my ego was huge, you dealt with it
For that I send you long life and health with it
You was my attorney to be, manager and friend
Seen a star in me before the camera run lens
To think back and see that you admire Proof
Through the struggle with Mark Hicks and damn I fired you? (What?)
From now to then I see where all my trouble been
But I'm living out my dream thanks to you and Double M
I love him like you from Kim to daughter with Pauly Shore
It goes down, we're poor (In the water!)
Your test number was 313, look where it led to
I see it in your face, yeah I miss Headd too
We a family to stay together
Yeah we don't pray together but this how it's gon' be everyday forever (I love you)

This my love letters, to all my people before cheddar
No vendettas right now let's settle
This my love letters To Paul Rosenberg
It's all my love letters, I love y'all (It's my love letters)
This my love letters, to all my people before cheddar
No vendettas, let's settle this, we out the ghetto
This my love letters (Hah) To D12
This my love letters, I love y'all (From the heart, c'mon)

Dear Nani it seems lately you seem shaky
You need to slow down, remember HP?
When we was broke with no vision
Now you got a little money and try to make everybody's decisions, listen
If it ain't for the team nigga I ain't with' it
Ain't no money out here solo and Proof can't get it
But I think of Vocaz, Swifty and Bizzy
And how as a unit our pockets been empty
And put simply, sometimes you need a hug dude
Look what you doing, that nigga Von shit he love you!
From the struggle to success I love you to death
Out the crew, me and you who rumble out of stress
Nah, think about that there's something to grow to Trials in life is something we all must go through
We all got your back with out rapping, so true
But without D12 my nigga its no use

This my love letters, to all my people before cheddar
No vendettas right now let's settle
This my love letters (To Denaun Porter)
It's all my love letters, I love y'all (It's my love letters)
This my love letters, to all my people before cheddar

No vendettas, let's settle this, we out the ghetto
This my love letters (Hah) (To D12 my nigga)
This my love letters, I love y'all (C'mon)

Yeah, just to let y'all know, you know what I'm saying
Sometimes I don't stress it vocally, so y'all can see it and hopefully
We can get along socially, you know what I'm saying
Locally to globally (Hah) [?] overseas
Just want y'all to know, man to man, I love y'all and thanks for everything y'all done
I'm proud of y'all, you hear me?

This my love letters, to all my people before cheddar
No vendettas right now let's settle
This my love letters
It's all my love letters, I love y'all (It's my love letters)
This my love letters, to all my people before cheddar
No vendettas, let's settle this, we out the ghetto
This my love letters (Hah)
This my love letters, I love y'all (C'mon)
