

Vicious Circle

Propaganda

Days become years
Years become tears
Inside this maze
I've lost your trace

A prison cell
A lonely hell
All doors are locked
The key's been dropped

I've fallen prey to a delusion
Your pretty mask has been an illusion
Stupefying ways of sinning
Makes me miss the web you're spinning

Inside a vicious circle
Inside a vicious circle

Days become years
Years become tears
The silent wall
Embraces all

A prison cell
A lonely hell
No candlelight
Repels the night

I've fallen prey to a delusion
Your pretty mask has been an illusion
Stupefying ways of sinning
Makes me miss the web you're spinning

Inside a vicious circle
Inside a vicious circle

You captured me
Inside a vicious circle
A helpless fly
Tangled up
In your spider web of lies

An empty heart
Ignores the pain
Of love that's lost
When love's in vain

I've fallen prey to a delusion
Your pretty mask has been an illusion
Stupefying ways of sinning
Makes me miss the web you're spinning

Inside a vicious circle
Inside a vicious circle
Inside a vicious circle
Inside a vicious circle

Tangled up
