

No Time

Propaganda

There's no safe haven from the invasion of Daylight
There's no evasion of things you got to make right
There's no replacing them things you got to say right
But Hey right
You don't wanna wake up

You could change your location or stays on staycation
But the things you got to face remains with no erasing
And procrastination might give a sensation that you cool with it all
Yelling you don't want to wake up
You hearing all my mirror talks
Bargaining with fierce cause
Corner of my eyes is the Cross I better take up
You gonna have to face up
Homie you just play tough
Homie you just say stuff
You don't want to wake up

There's a more greater mighty embrace
To find a scape inside a better grace
Ahhh ahhh....

I don't wanna wake up with no time
I don't wanna wake up
I don't wanna wake up

Yeah, I don't wanna wake up
Wiping off your makeup
Worry about what could have been it
How that made us break ups
Spending all my minutes
Trying to perfect what just might have been
Missing every second of the life that's really happening
Wasn't at your graduation
I was grabbing Grammy nods
I knew you would understand
You knew this was God's plan
Ama stop living in my head instead of here, here
Listen here, trying to fix the past
Plan a better future
Trying to make it last
Promise not to lose you
Ignore it and avoid it
Try to stop the riot
Stream another podcast hiding from the quiet
So let's work I just learned about breath work
Ignoring the present will make your chest hurt
Wake up, Prop
Experience the bliss
If all there is this, this

I don't wanna wake up with no time
I don't wanna wake up with no time
I don't wanna wake up with no time

I don't wanna wake up with no time
I don't wanna wake up
I don't wanna wake up with no time
I don't wanna wake up
(wake up, wake up, wake up...)

You could give your mind a little time out
A little rest before you climb out
But even when you try to pull your eyes out
It won't make it go away
The pain's gonna make a way
But nobody wanna change
It's the same thing every day
Every day every, every, every day
I kneel, I feel, the of fatal appeal, America zeal
Half a shield, the burden, the yield
The murderer kneel, zeal
It's a little bit maddening
Cuz I'm not just imagining
Never really waking up

I don't wanna wake up with no time
I don't wanna wake up
I don't wanna wake up with no time
I don't wanna wake up
