

Terraform

Propaganda

Uh, I'ma alter your summer solstice
Hmm, I'm a beacon to all cultures
Mm, I'm a cosmic explorer
Build a civilization, homie, I'ma terraform
I'ma, I'ma alter your summer solstice
Hmm, I'm a beacon to all cultures
Mm, I'm a cosmic explorer
I'ma build a new world, homie, I'ma terraform

I'm out of my seasons, specifically cuffin'
You gotta force love, you got nothin', start over
Huh, boy, these raps be wearin' hard hats
Buildin' up villages in the spots we tour at
Tsunami waves of thought, demolish your whole college
Build a world with bars like what y'all doin' at Mars
A new spin on things to offer you all access
The degree to which we lean on each other, we're not fractious
Earth science, modern Mayan, early Jewish building blocks
Nitrogen humility, oxygen civility
Our currency has currently convinced us it is worthy
To determine our eternity, we gotta start over
Start over, boy

I'ma alter your summer solstice
Uh, I'm a beacon to all cultures
Uh, I'm a cosmic explorer
Build a civilization, homie, I'ma terraform

It's a world you can't picture, picture words and infrastructure
Y'all got numbers and no names, that livin' is no way
When the best thing to do is to fold and start over
What if the best route is keepin' a shut mouth?
And seasons are stuck, doubt, and leavin' the love out
It's peakin' your luck out, I'm grievin' my guts out
Breathin' my lungs out, a reason to tough out
(Cuff out, cuff out) Huh, terraform, start over
Lord Jesus, let the soil teach us
Maybe value trees like they give us the air we breathe
No truer words, who could speak, amount to equal?
Not just screamin' 'bout the beef we got, huh
Why do we even bother to try to solve problems
When in thirty years we'll be out of freshwater?
Huh, empires rise and fall
Terraform, start over, better for us all

I'ma alter your summer solstice
Uh, I'm a beacon to all cultures
Uh, I'm a cosmic explorer
I'ma build a new world, big homie, terraform
I'ma alter your summer solstice
Uh, I'm a beacon to all cultures
Uh, I'm a cosmic explorer
Build a new world, big homie, terraform
