

Complicated

Propain

(G&B) Yeah
Son, the truth hurts

Don't wanna let you down
I know it's complicated
Not lookin' for a way out
I just know you need some space and, shit
I'll give you yours
On some player shit (Player)
You give me mine
And that's the way it is, yeah (Yeah)

Look, you everything I need, baby
But right now I'm just feelin' like we need space
This life's become a replay, rerun, even these dates is feelin' cliché Then we losin' more patience each day, girl, I heard this shit breathe takes so what now?
Look, we could talk about it then start beefin'
Start fuckin' then start screamin', I bullshit like I ain't mean it, then wh at?
Huh? We'll be good today and at the most a week
And then before you know it, shit go to pieces, this is the same movie, I kn ow the sequel
But even though we need to move, the way I feel is too complicated
I ain't tryna see you with another dude, I hate the thought, I can't contemp late it
That's why every time you ask am I sure, I always thought I give confirmatio n
I wanna make it, but what I'm sayin' is-

Don't wanna let you down
I know it's complicated
Not lookin' for a way out
I just know you need some space and, shit
I'll give you yours
On some player shit
You give me mine
And that's the way it is, yeah

I give my all to you
Don't make me turn my back
And no, I'm not over you
Why does it hurt to love so bad? (Why does it hurt to love so bad? Uh)

I know I hurt you in the past, I know, and every time we made up
I promised you how this time we gon' stay up, I know niggas ain't shit (Nah)
That's what you talkin', I hear you sing the song
But if I don't leave, I'm wrong 'cause you'll be quick to say how I was stri ngin' along
So even though it's best we move, the way I feel is too complicated Still want the bars, still want the love, want the trust and that conversati on
Selfish me, but yeah, that's the truth, just need a break from these confron tations (Conversations)
I wanna make it, but what I'm sayin' is-

Don't wanna let you down (Don't wanna let you down)

I know it's complicated (I was complicated)
Not lookin' for a way out (Not lookin' for a way out)
I just know you need some space and, shit (I just know you need some space)
I'll give you yours (Give you yours, give you yours)
On some player shit
You give me mine (Yeah, yeah)
And that's the way it is Baby
That's the way it is, yeah, uh

We gotta take what we started with Whether it be nothin' or a little or whatever shit and we gon' turn that shi t into a lot
'Cause that's just how we born to do it
