It seems like I've been around the world and back, oh yeah, yeah, ayy
It seems like I've been around the world and back, oh yeah
It seems like I've been around the world and back, oh
It seems like, yeah, yeah, ohh

It seems like I've been 'round the world and back, oh
Yeah, the feelin's so true, you can't take it back, no
This moment mine, I'ma never let it go, no
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control, yeah
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control (Yeah), yeah

From in the hood petty hustlin'
Them teachers said that we'd never be nothin'
Now them same school call us up for a pep rally
Walk up in that bitch and I bet be jumpin'
But who'd have guess it though?
We was in them stolen cars doin' donuts 'round the Texaco
Mark got ten, I cried when they arrested bro
Pat caught a slug to the dome, damn, rest his soul
I guess all my granny and prayers connected so
Through all the bullshit, the man just kept on blessin' Pro'
And all the shit that I'm supposed to have a record for I put in pain over beats to make the records blow
Yeah, I'm from a spot, will make it out it
I went from countin' crumbs to now we thumbnin' through thousands Livin' by the Rockets, no more of them public houses
Got so far to go, but I shine on niggas who doubted (Yeah, ohh), Trill

It seems like I've been 'round the world and back, oh
Yeah, the feelin's so true, you can't take it back, no
This moment mine, I'ma never let it go, no
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control (Yeah), yeah
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control (We gotta take control of our own situation)
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control, yeah

7 Day Theory, man, it's crazy how this whole shit came about
Um
We was tryna put the whole process of makin' some new music, and uh
That shit just wasn't goin' in my favor, a lotta shit just wasn't goin' in m y favor
And one night, it's almost like the Devil came, the Devil was like
"It ain't workin' out for you, you might as well come to this side, you migh t as well sell your soul"
True story, man, I swear
And um-I remember wakin' up
Actually that day, that was-that was July the 7th
I remember wakin' up, man, and just-just realizin' like "Man, I got seven days to construct that, I can't-", you know I'm sayin'? (Y eah, ohh)
"Whatever gon' happen," and um

It seems like I've been 'round the world and back, oh
I ended up gettin' in the studio with DJ X.O. the next day
Yeah, the feelin's so true, you can't take it back, no
And uh
Me and that nigga just kinda had like a vibe goin' and next thing you know
This moment mine, I'ma never let it go, no
Shit, we knocked out seven songs in seven days
Some of the best music I ever made
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control
Um
And we ended up not puttin' it out when we were supposed to
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control
But in them seven days, I learned so much, it was almost like a rebirth of w ho I was as a person
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control, yeah
You find out so much about yourself when your back to the wall
You find out you could do shit you ain't even know could do, and um
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control
7 Day Theory, man
No time to waste, we gon' elevate or take control
It ain't too much more I could say about that, uh
As you c-know, I end up not Crossin' over and goin' over to the other side, man, you know?
But uh-that was a blessin' in disguise so Throughout that dream, I probably thought that that was the Devil tellin' me that but in actuality it could've just been God givin' me a reality check Yeah, so now we hustlin' harder, man, Forever Trill
