

Queen

Propain

Yeah

Can't really explain this feelin'

Look

My life changed when I met you, mmm

This whole world stopped the first time I held you, look

Lotta pain, a lotta stress in my heart

You the one who came around and made it better

Queen Jada, Queen Jada now this bond here forever, yeah

More than diamonds, more than cheddar, yeah

It's so strange how someone who came talkin' teach you love is really more than four letters

Now please understand that your daddy on the go

Dream chasin' doin' for the gold

I wanna give the world to you, even more

Hold on, Jada, listen, baby, let your daddy finish

Every second I be cherishin' your soul

Nobody could replace we never know, baby

You done made me change up all my old ways

And I admit I had some foul ass ways, look

Bad boy, I confess it

Was known to see the girl pick-and-roll like I'm Drexler

Horses gettin' broke if they was lifted up and checked it

I just hope that when they hit, it's my apologies accepted, real niggas

So I gotta teach my queen all the signs

Let her know it's fake niggas that's gon' be in disguise

Hell yeah, you pretty, but the gift is your mind

Never let 'em steer you different, only limit the sky

And you know it's my year, oh

It's a wonderful feelin', yeah, yeah

I'ma hold it down like yeah

She's a one in a million, yeah, oh, oh, oh

She's a one in a million, yeah, ah, oh-yeah, yeah

Ah-ah, yeah, oh, oh

Hol' up, one in a million, yeah, oh-oh, oh yeah, yeah, yeah

Oh yeah, oh-oh, ayy, oh, oh

She's a one in a million, yeah

Yeah, somethin' 'bout the way

'Bout the way you make me feel

I could tell it's so real, yeah, uh-uh, uh-uh, ayy

Let's gon' live a little

Let's gon' live a little (Yeah)

Angel out the sky

Gold in your heart and it's twinkle in your eyes

Every day I gotta shoot a thank you up to God

I been on some other stuff since the day you came around

When all the setbacks start playin' with your mind

If a child don't do nothin', it'll make a nigga grind

Now I'm sittin' here, lookin' at my baby

Lookin' just like me, mane, I swear this so crazy, I ain't never felt it, ha ha

L-l-l-l-legend

To hear you say, "Daddy," so refreshin'

Still became the man, though no papa wasn't present

I'ma be the best you known like I grew up takin' lessons, haha
And you was born to be the star of the show
True black queen, I hope you know
Never let this money over love or your soul
And when you start datin', I'm startin' checks boys at the door, and you know it's like yeah

And you know it's like yeah (Yeah), oh
It's a wonderful feelin', yeah, yeah
I'ma hold it down like yeah
She's a one in a million, yeah, oh, oh, oh
She's a one in a million, yeah, ah, oh-yeah, yeah
Ah-ah, yeah, oh, oh
Hol' up, one in a million, yeah, oh-oh, oh yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh yeah, oh-oh, ayy, oh, oh
She's a one in a million, yeah

Yeah, somethin' 'bout the way
'Bout the way you make me feel
I could tell it's so real, yeah, uh-uh, uh-uh, ayy
Let's gon' live a little
Let's gon' live a little
