Road Rage

Protector

The blood is pumping fast - The eyes are turning black
The dices have been cast - There's no way to turn back
Fists are clenched so hard - Waiting to break free
Someone has to pay - You just wait and see

[Chorus]
Road Rage [2x]

[Repeat first verse]

Now it's time for payback - Now it's time to strike
The brain feels like it's burning up - Time to jump the dike
Firing up the engine - The first stone has been thrown
But in the end you'll only feel tired and alone

[Repeat second verse]
[Repeat chorus]
[Repeat first verse]
[Repeat chorus]
