

Six Hours on the Cross

Protector

Forced through the alleys and the streets of the city
People watching with hate and with pity
There were so many words that were unsaid
Now the hill of skulls is waiting ahead

Saviour of the world or the king of the jews
One side will win and the other will loose
Mocked by some while loved by the others
A dream of a world with sisters and brothers

Spikes in the hands - Spikes in the feet
A crown of thornes on his head

Forced through the alleys and the streets of the city
People watching with hate and with pity
There were so many words that were unsaid
Now the hill of skulls is waiting ahead

Saviour of the world or the king of the jews
One side will win and the other will loose
Mocked by some while loved by the others
A dream of a world with sisters and brothers

Spikes in the hands - Spikes in the feet
A crown of thornes on his head

Today you will be with me in paradise (x 4)

Forced through the alleys and the streets of the city
People watching with hate and with pity
There were so many words that were unsaid
Now the hill of skulls is waiting ahead

Saviour of the world or the king of the jews
One side will win and the other will loose
Mocked by some while loved by the others
A dream of a world with sisters and brothers

Spikes in the hands - Spikes in the feet
A crown of thornes on his head
Father forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing
