

Steel Caravan

Protector

Early morning, off the ferry
Going to a sanctuary
Going to a paradise
Where Metal can thrive and will always suffice

Filling petrol - Sunrays
Fast food - Motorways
Dog days - Happy times
Metal bells, let 'em chime

Dusty Roads - Endless Highways

Riding down a road that seems endless and eternal
Taking us forward, diurnal and nocturnal
Snus and cigarettes, junkfood and beers
Metal in our hearts and Metal in our ears

Dusty Roads - Endless Highways

This is how I want to live forevermore
A howling raging fury with a Metal roar
A beast dressed in leather, spikes and chains
A tornado of steel - An iron hurricane

Grey is the road, blue is the sky
The earth so close, the clouds so high
Snow and rain, storm and heat
Suburbs and towns, long winding streets

Dusty Roads - Endless Highways
